

Sewer Rates

Effective January 1, 2010

The City of Santa Fe's Wastewater Management Division is increasing the sewer rates for several services. These changes include new sewer service charges, new extra strength sewer surcharge rates, and establishing new effluent water rates.

New Sewer Charges:

- Monthly Service Fee will increase from $4.50 to $5.85 per unit for city and non-city residents. This is an increase of $1.35 per month.
- Monthly Usage Fee per 1,000 gallons for city residents will increase from $2.75 to $3.58. This is an increase of $0.83 per 1,000 gallons.
- Monthly Usage Fee per 1,000 gallons for non-city residents will increase from $2.95 to $3.84. This is an increase of $0.89 per 1,000 gallons.

New Extra Strength Sewer Charges:

- The mass based cost of providing air to remove COD (chemical oxygen demand) in wastewater will increase from $0.39 per pound to $0.51 per pound.

New Effluent Water Rates:

- Treated Effluent will be increased from $2.215 to $2.395 (plus $.18 administrative fees, and 5% sales tax).
